

NEW BRUNSWICK THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Information Session May 17 @ 6:00 pm - 8:30 pm 35 Seminary Place, New Brunswick, NJ

RSVP: admissions@nbts.edu

Attending an Information Session at New Brunswick Theological Seminary is a great way to discern God's call on your life. Learn about our programs of study, the admissions requirements, and the community of scholars and learners who make up NBTS. Meet faculty and staff who are passionate about transformative and engaging theological education.

In today's changing world, service to Christ and His church can take many forms. At New Brunswick Theological Seminary — the first Seminary established in North America — we are dedicated to helping students respond to their individual calling through rigorous yet accessible theological education.

At New Brunswick Theological Seminary, we make theological education more accessible than ever. Our flexible program schedules can be customized to fit within your busy work and family life.

NBTS faculty members are at the forefront of their disciplines and are well respected in their academic fields. Our students enjoy the highest student-teacher ratio in the region, and NBTS professors take a personal interest in every student. NBTS is an unparalleled educational opportunity for the women and men who will lead the church and serve the world into the future.

TRANSFORMATIVE. PRACTICAL. FAITHFUL.

GRADUATE THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SINCE 1784
M.A., M.Div., D.Min. & CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

NJ CAMPUS | 35 Seminary Place | New Brunswick, NJ 08901 | 732-247-5241

NY CAMPUS | St. John's University - St. John's Hall, Room B36
8000 Utopia Parkway | Jamaica, NY 11439 | 718-990-6000