Searching Internet Archive

1. Navigate to the Sage Library Research Databases webpage at: <https://www.nbts.edu/sage-library/resources/online-databases/>
Scroll down and click on the Internet Archive icon to get started.
2. You will need to create a free account to access the full texts.

The image shows the Internet Archive login page. At the top is a circular icon with a classical building facade. Below it is the text "Log In" and a link "Don't have an account? Sign up for free!". The form includes an "Email address" field, a "Password" field with a toggle for visibility, a "Forgot password?" link, a checked "Keep me logged in" checkbox, and a blue "Log in" button.

3. Navigate to the bottom of the page and enter your key word search terms. For more advanced options select, "Advanced Search."

The screenshot shows the Internet Archive homepage. The top navigation bar includes "INTERNET ARCHIVE" and various media categories. A search bar is prominently displayed with the "waybackMachine" logo. Below the search bar, there is a section titled "Internet Archive is a non-profit library of millions of free books, movies, software, music, websites, and more." This section features a grid of icons representing different media types and their respective counts. At the bottom of this section, there is a search input field with a "GO" button and a link to "Advanced Search" which is circled in red. To the right, there is an "Announcements" section with several news items and a "SEE MORE" link.

4. Narrow your results by using the left side navigation on the results page.
